TELEGRAPH TICKS

Berlin, April 22.—Maximilian Harden, editor of Di-Zukunft yesterday paid the fine of $150, that was assessed against him in the Central Criminal Court for his libel of General Count Cuno von Moltke, in connection with the "Round Table" orgies of Prince zu Bismarck.

Washington, April 22.—By order of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger, more than a million acres of land that had been withdrawn by President Roosevelt in the last days of his administration for the purpose of conserving water resources, was yesterday restored to the public domain and made available for entry under the various land laws of the United States.

Boston, April 22.—Suffering from overwork in connection with the worldwide Emmanuel movement of which he is the head, Dr. Elwood Worcester will spend his summer vacation in complete rest. Mrs. Worcester denied to-day that the advocate of Phych-Therapeutics was suffering from a nervous breakdown such as he claims could be cured by his healing.

Washington, April 22.—"Any statement that President Taft is not in sympathy with forestry and the conservation movement, is without foundation. On the contrary, I am authorized by the President to say that he is in entire sympathy with the forest policy and the conservation policy as already developed." is the statement made to-day by Chief Forester Pinchot.

South orkark, April 22.—The J. H. Wollhousey Hat Shop, which has been closed since the beginning of the hat strike and which was sold last week to a New York firm, opened yesterday as a union shop, the company having dropped out of the Manufacturers' Association.

Danbury, April 22.—The local officials of the United Hatters yesterday ordered the removal of the union label from the factory of Delano & Wheeler, which up to this time has been a strong union shop.

Boston, April 22.—The death scenes in the tragedy of Mrs. Horatio Jordan with whose murder her husband, Chester S. Jordan, is charged were yesterday visited by the jury of 12 men who will decide his fate.

New York, April 22.—Addison S. Beardsley of 283 Stuyvesant avenue, Brooklyn, formerly confidential man in the employ of Leonard C. Carpenter Real Estate Company in Liberty street, pleaded guilty in the court of general sessions yesterday afternoon to two indictments charging forgery in the third degree.

SUES TROLLEY CO., FOR $1,000

A suit for $1,000 brought by Charles Loomis of 444 Berkshire Avenue, acting for his son, Harold against the Connecticut Co., was instituted in the Common Pleas court yesterday. Young Loomis alleges that on Feb. 24 last while on his way to school and while crossing Noble Avenue at Arctic St., he was struck by a trolley car, thrown to the ground, received a broken arm and was otherwise injured. The young lad is still in bed.

Story Books—Reforestation—Extensive Fencing—A Beach Hotel—Spraying Trees—Transfers of Real Estate.

Something like 150 of the most popular story books for children have been placed upon special shelves in one corner of the reading room, the authors including Kipling, Otis, Lothrop, Monro, Matthews, Ray, Richards and Johnson. In a list of similar books most sought after by the children of New York city one finds the works of Miss Louise Alcott, of Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Dickens, Mark Twain and Anderson's Fairy Tales. Alice in Wonderland is also a popular book in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hartshorn expect soon to leave for Canada.

Mr. Wyrzten has a horse which indulges every little while in the sport of running away. This it has done twice recently, once at least throwing Mr. Carroll, the driver, out of the wagon. And it is said in town that Mr. Wyrzten bought the beast of a perfectly reliable dealer in horses.

Judge John H. Perry of Southport, is expected home from a tour of the South some day this week. An extensive piece of reforestation is going on in town, at the instance of John Freeman, who purchased some time ago the old town farm. He has in his employ two or three experts who are planting something like $5,000 worth of various kinds of trees on the place. Many people in town are watching the experiment with interest.

Clarence Goodell of Stratford, was in town on Tuesday, exploring the fields and woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldis Ellis who have been stopping for a few days at the Sherman parsonage with the bride's father, Rev. Frank S. Child, left town today for their long wedding journey, on their way to California. They will probably stop at various points of interest, and may take a run into Mexico to visit Arthur Child.

C. P. Brett is having one and a half miles of wire fence put about his place.

C. H. Bradley has the contract.

John Boyle is doing a fine business in the matter of selling bicycles. He has a fine collection on hand at moderate prices and has recently sold one to Mr. Thompson of the Fairfield Rubber Works, and one to Mr. Oldberg of Greenfield Hill.

It took 2,000 feet of iron fence to inclose three sides of the A. Holland Forbes estate, at a cost of at least $800. In time Mr. Forbes intends to remove the white picket fence in front of the house and replace it with a stout English fence of high and sharp spears. The new wrought iron gates will be used for this fence.

At last there is to be a hotel at Fairfield Beach, to be called the "Audic," which will accommodate at least 30 transient guests. There will be special rates by the season, the week or the day. It is to be open on the 15th of May. A spacious porch will surround the house, and it is promised that the beds and the service will be good. The proprietors are Austin & Dickson.

Parties in town who wish to have their elm trees sprayed this spring to kill the elm beetle, which is so destructive to the foliage, are requested to communicate with E. Betts, the president of the Village Improvement Society. It is desirable to know how many trees are to be sprayed so that arrangements to that end can be made.

The traveling library which has heretofore been in the care of Mrs. Perry, Greenfield Hill, is to be taken in charge by Mrs. Frank A. Warren. People wishing for books can call on Mrs. Warren.

During the past winter and spring Fred Sturges has had men at work draining and reclaiming a couple of swamps, and the land will before the summer be quite dry and ready to put under cultivation. The land lies back of the old Knapp place and the work has cost some $5,000.

There have recently been a few transfers of real estate in town, as follows:

John Kasper Schwarz and wife to Hubert Gray Beach, a lot of land on Round Hill road, five-eighths of an acre, being a part of the land lately conveyed to the grantor by O. G. Jennings.

Edward S. Hotchkiss of Bridgeport to M. E. Brewster-Green, four acres of land with the buildings thereon, bound by the Eastern turnpike and land of Isaac B. Wilson, F. L. Nichols, Mrs. J. S. Blakeman and Clapp Spooner.

August Casamento Julius Karchgor, which and wife, a lot 32 x 29 feet, bounded by King's highway and land of William Crowley.

The Bridgeport Land & Title Company to Konstant V. Prochaska and wife, lot 257, Black Rock avenue, Castle Park.

The same to Frank Yuhass of Bridgeport, lots 480, 481, 482 and 483 on Berkeley road, Lenox Heights.

The same to Amy Sutaski, lot 214, Poe Court, Castle Park.

Mary E. Stirling to Edward Guilbert, a lot of land on Pequot avenue, Southport, fronting 75 feet on the avenue, and the same on land of E. S. Hand.

Joseph D. Skidmore to George W. Hills of Bridgeport, a certain piece of land bounded by land of Sylvanus N. Beckwith and Seth and Joseph Osborne and the highway.

The taxpayers of the town are informed that the collector who will receive taxes will be on the 11th of June at Banks' store, Greenfield Hill, and on the 12th of May at Switzer's drug store, Southport. On other days during the year the collector will be at the town hall. All taxes should be paid before the 1st of June.

MONDAY NIGHT'S

CONCERT AND BALL
Thomas M. Smith Company, U. R. K. of P. will give a grand concert and ball in Arion hall, Monday night, to commemorate the occupancy of this hall as their armory. They expect to have there that night many from New Haven, Greenwich, Stamford, Derby and other places as well as the Uniform Rank, W. O. W. Tickets may be obtained from the members or at Emil Leu's barber shop, 1272 Main street.
